And only other thing to add re News XChange, there is a work-in-progress version of the News XChange Agenda here: http://www.newsxchange.org/fileadmin/user_upload/downloads/News_Xchange_2018_Agenda_v3.3.pdf

As I said, I haven't had much contact with the organising team but if you need more than is here I'm sure [Redacted] can link you while I'm on leave.

Thanks,

Hope all's well with you.

The News XChange Conference is an EBU event – and of course the BBC is a member of the EBU and takes an active part in its board. The host partners for the Edinburgh event are indeed BBC News and BBC Scotland. I've only really been across it in terms of the DG/FM meeting request. Please let me know if you'd like me to link you with someone who's closer to the finer details.

I'm about to go off on leave after today for a week, so just in case you need to pick up further on any of this ([Redacted] visit etc), I've copied in Ian to the note.

Hopefully cross paths soon,

Hi [Redacted]

[redacted]

Also, is the BBC organising the News XChange Conference? We're currently checking FM's availability for the Lord Hall meeting – but I wasn't sure who was organising the conference.

Thanks
